

Breast Cancer Regional Clinical Trials Showcase

Personalised treatment in breast cancer

Tuesday 14 November 2017, 2pm - 4.30pm
Basement Seminar Room
Centre for Cancer Research and Cell Biology (CCRCB), QUB

1pm - 2pm Networking Lunch - Kindly provided by Roche

CCRCB foyer

Agenda

- 2pm Welcome – Mr Stuart McIntosh, Deputy Director, NICTN
- 2.05 Professor Daniel Rea
Professor of Medical Oncology, University of Birmingham
Chair, NCRI Breast Clinical Studies Group
Chief Investigator, ROSCO & NOSTRA trials
ROSCO trial – the optimal selection of neoadjuvant chemotherapy in operable breast cancer
NOSTRA trial - no surgery after neoadjuvant chemotherapy?
- 2.30 Miss Cliona Kirwan,
Surgical Lead, PRIMETIME
PRIMETIME – avoidance of radiotherapy in minimal risk women
- 2.45 Dr Indrani Battacharya
Clinical Research Fellow, Institute of Cancer Research
PRIMETIME Information Giving Study – decision aids for clinical trial participation
- 2.55 Mrs Margaret Grayson, Chair, NICRCF
The Patient Representative perspective on breast cancer clinical trials
- 3.05 Tea/Coffee break

- 3.25 Miss Cliona Kirwan,
Clinical Senior Lecturer in Surgical Oncology, University of Manchester
Surgical Lead, LORIS trial
LORIS – the Low Risk DCIS trial
- 3.40 Professor Rob Stein
Professor of Medical Oncology, University College Hospitals,
London
Chief Investigator - OPTIMA
OPTIMA trial – personalising treatment of early breast cancer using multi-parameter analysis
- 4.00 Dr Carmel Conefrey,
School of Social and Community Medicine, University of Bristol
Qualitative Recruitment Study in OPTIMA – the challenges of recruiting to trials of less treatment
- 4.10 Q&A and Discussion
- 4.30 Close

CPD applied for from the Royal College of Surgeons